

Fear or Faith
Mark 4:35-41

1. The calm _____ the storm. (vv. 35-36)

- Jesus had ministered through a long, _____ day.
- But what strikes me as interesting is that no one, not one of these _____ fishermen, shared their concern with Him about crossing the Sea of Galilee at this time.
- We should never be afraid or ashamed to bring our _____ to Jesus. He can handle them.

2. The calm _____ the storm. (vv. 37-38)

- The words Mark used to describe this storm in the text are dramatic, powerful words. He calls it a mega-_____.
- They were in danger of dying when they decided to go wake up the _____.
- This presents us with a wonderful picture of the _____ of Jesus.
- Jesus was _____ in the midst of the storm because he had faith in God.

3. The calm _____ the storm. (vv. 39-40)

- At Jesus' word, the storm _____ dead.
- Just as it was a mega-quake of a storm, it was a mega-calm; a perfect, _____ calm.
- Jesus is showing, in the clearest and most persuasive way possible, that He is _____ man and God.
- We need to consider God as our _____ resource, not our _____ resort.

4. The storm _____ the calm. (v. 41)

- We had a mega-earthquake of a storm, a mega-calm, and now a mega-_____.
- The clear implication is that they were _____ afraid to think they were standing in the presence of God than they were afraid of the storm.
- Only the Creator God could so command the elements and forces of nature, so Jesus, having just commanded them, must be _____.
