His Hand Is Still Stretched Out

Isaiah 9:8-10:6

1. First, He used circumstances to _____. (9:8-12)

God had warned them over and over with many _____ and in various ways. But, in this passage, the final warnings begin with a time of destruction in Israel.

And their _____ was an offense to God.

My friends, God is talking. He is not just whispering any more. Now He is shouting. But we're not _____.

2. Second, He used a prophet to send a _____.
(9:8, 13-10:2)

If the country did not _____ and turn back to God and His ways, that destruction, total destruction, was about to come upon it.

It would strike _____, from the highest to the lowest. No one would be spared.

Why? Because _____ continues to burn across the land.

They continued on to take _____ of the poor and disadvantaged.

Does any of this sound at all _____?

3. Finally, God used the unrighteous to bring _____. (10:3-6)

When God had finally had enough, He sent a judgment of _____ destruction.

This does not mean that the _____ got off scot free.

God will only _____ so long. And then comes woe.
