Good New, Bad News

Mark 8:27-33

1. The Good News. (vv. 27-30)

Jesus is a _____ from God.

They reply that most think He is _____,
risen from the dead.

Others say He is _____, come as foretold. (Mal. 4:5)

Still others thought He might be one of the other prophets, most likely _____.

The disciples, of course, had realized even _____ than that.

Jesus is the _____.

They don't doubt the person, but they clearly don't understand the
_____.

Satan is in the business of _____ what people think about Jesus.

On your answer to that question depends your _____.

2. The Bad News. (vv. 31-33)

Jesus knows that He's going to be tried in a kangaroo court, convicted and _____.

He draws Jesus aside, condescendingly, and he's going to _____ Jesus, for His own good.

He sees Peter's advice as a _____ straight from Satan, on a par with His temptation in the wilderness. (Matt. 4)

This is _____ the way with God. It is through service and, yes, even suffering that He brings about His glory and the glory of His servants.
