The Case of the Furious Foreigner

2 Kings 5:1-19

1. Naaman's _____ . (vv. 1-7)

The fact that Naaman is a leper, yet blessed and successful in his life, is a _____ contradiction.

Here we see Naaman and Benhadad betray their _____ worldview.

That's their first mistake: assuming that God's favor can be _____.

2. Naaman's _____ . (vv. 8-14)

God's _____ will certainly result when a non-believer like Naaman is confronted by the power of God.

This is his second mistake: assuming that _____ ways are like _____ ways.

Naaman finally becomes willing to _____ himself and obey the command of God through Elisha.

We too need to be willing to humble _____ before God.

3. Naaman's _____ . (vv. 15-19)

He had become a _____.

He had become a man of _____ in the one true God.

He had become a worshiper of God _____.

We should cease to be _____ and become givers instead. (Rom. 13:8)

We should exercise true faith in God, turning our backs on our _____ . (Matt. 6:24)

We should worship God with our whole hearts, being willing to take _____ for His name. (Luke 18:29-30)
