

Rehoboam: The Arrogant Pretender

1 Kings 12, 14; 2 Chron. 10-13

1. He pretended to _____ wise counsel. (1 Ki. 12:12-19)

Solomon's kingship was peaceful, but not _____.

When Rehoboam went to Shechem to be crowned king, it was no _____ thing.

As a result of this arrogant foolishness, the country, which had been united for hundreds of years, split in two, _____ to be reunited again.

There could be many reasons, but one for sure is _____.

Don't let your pride and arrogance lead you into rejecting the _____ of God.

2. He pretended to _____ God's commands. (2 Chr. 11:1-12)

No sooner did he arrive back in Jerusalem than he started making plans to _____ Israel.

Rehoboam didn't want peace. He wanted _____.

Sometimes we don't _____ the commands of God either.

Our souls were not meant to pretend and _____ our sins.

3. He pretended to _____ God. (1 Ki. 14:21-23; 2 Ch. 11:14-22; 12:1)

This perverse worship was _____ to God.

God's name was _____ by Naamah and her Ammonite gods during the reign of Rehoboam.

In the 4th year, when Rehoboam was _____ and _____, he left off with worshiping God altogether.