

Have a Relational New Year

Gen. 2:18; Eccl. 4:9-12

1. Isolation is _____ for us. (Gen. 2:18)

Scripture clearly tells us that it is not _____ for man to be alone.

But beyond mere health, we know in our spiritual lives that isolation leaves _____ unchecked.

Christian accountability is _____ helping _____ do what you told me that _____ wants you to do.

2. Relationships have great _____ for us. (Eccl. 4:9-12a)

There is mutual _____ when we work together. (v. 9)

There is mutual _____ when we are weak. (v. 10)

There is mutual _____ when we are vulnerable. (v. 11)

There is mutual _____ when we are attacked. (v. 12a)

3. Friendships _____ are not enough. (Eccl. 4:12b)

We seek friendships which include _____ in the center so that we can be stronger in Him, grow to be more like Him and serve Him better together than we can alone.

Guess what? These kinds of relationships take _____.

It takes a small group of people who _____, and who you have developed a _____ with, to help you change your life.
