

The Moment of Truth

Mark 6:45-52

1. Jesus _____ for His disciples. (vv. 45-46)

Jesus, the Bible tells us, is _____ praying for His disciples. Then for the 12, and now for us.

But, as good as that is, we need to also do our _____ to accomplish the goal of becoming like Him.

2. Jesus _____ His disciples. (vv. 47-51)

The disciples are having trouble on the sea, _____.

It's clear that Jesus was coming to _____ them.

Did you know that Jesus is _____ protecting you, too?

3. Jesus gives _____ to His disciples. (Matt. 14:28-31)

So, in a blinding flash of _____, and upon Jesus' command to "Come," he climbs out of the boat.

He began to pay more _____ to his circumstances than to the power of Jesus.

Jesus has promised to give us _____ to do his bidding also.

4. Jesus _____ His disciples. (v. 52; Matt. 14:33; John 6:68-69)

Aha! They now get it! They now know He is the _____, without a doubt.

They are now persuaded not only of who He is but of what He is trying to do: He is trying to bring the gift of _____ to mankind!

We all must come to our own moment of truth, where we accept by _____ that we are sinners, that Jesus is the Son of God and that only He can give us the gift of eternal life.
